

Prague Economic Meeting 2011

16-18 June 2011

Location: CERGE-EI in Prague

Plenary speakers:

Ľuboš Pástor,

University of Chicago

Adam Szeidl,

University of California, Berkeley

Prague Economic Meeting 2011 will bring together leading economic scholars who either work in or originate from the region of Central Europe. It is a continuation of successful recent conferences Bratislava Economic Meeting 2008 and 2010. Contributions from academic as well as non-academic researchers will be solicited.

An official representative of a sponsor will have an opportunity to address the participants during the welcome reception and will be invited to all official functions of the conference. The sponsor will also have an opportunity to place promotional roll-ups in the conference location and obtain photographic/video footage of the conference for own promotional purposes.
